

Molise Conference, Isernia

23 January 2013

WP2 Overview : Molise Region

RTD take up in Regional Administration

- Regional Local Authorities' meetings.
- In march 2013 a new regional government
 - Transfer THE ISSUE strategy to the new regional government
 - Revise and update the regional transport plan
- A new challenge to harmonize (balance) local development priorities with european guidelines: strengthening regional cluster policy
- Link to Italian national policy for innovation
- Action for innovation and growth through interregional collaborations

How future Research and Technology Development may be beneficial for the RLA priorities

RTD priority Areas:

- Road Network capacity
- Public Transport services
- Modal Change
- Transport Impact on health and Environment

Regional Impacts

- Introduce innovative technologies into Molise Transport planning
- Promote growth in the Region through Sviluppo Italia Molise coming from THE ISSUE
- SME's participation in future programmes for knowledge exchange and innovation

Future strategic programmes

- Consolidate Consortium Geosat Molise (Italian Space Agency, Molise Region, Molise University, Telespazio Company)
 - One of the first laboratories in Italy organized by public and private agencies for research and implementation of geospatial data and services (Galileo and Copernicus) for the public administration, businesses and citizens. Products and services for national and international markets. (around € 10 millions/ investment)
- Deliver Sviluppo Italia Molise strategy for innovation and SME's growth
- Strengthen knowledge transfer from research excellence in the Universities to regional strategic objectives.
- Develop International cooperation main focus Mediterranean area and Euroadriatic Region